

NORTH AMERICAN PAIRS
DISTRICT 12 FINAL

Congratulations on your qualification to play in the District 12 Finals in the 2005-2006 North American Pairs competition.

The District Final will be a 2-session event, with a separate competition for each flight. According to ACBL Conditions of Contest, players may enter with any other player who qualified at any Unit Final in the District. Pairs will qualify from the District Final to compete in the National Final held in conjunction with the Spring North American Bridge Championships in Dallas TX. Event dates will vary by Flight, and schedules are available at the ACBL website (www.acbl.org).

Date: Saturday, November 5, 2005 @ 12 p.m. Players must check in by 11:45 a.m. Late arrivals will be allowed to compete only at the Director in Charge's discretion.

Location: Student Union, Michigan State University, East Lansing MI (SE corner of Grand River & Abbot). A map is available on the District Website.

COC Excerpts:

Any player entering the District Final may play with any other player who qualifies in the same Flight from a Unit Final. Players must make final flight elections prior to the District Final.

In order for a pair to play in the District Final, the District Coordinator must receive the pair's registration form and entry fee on or before October 25, 2005. Forms will be provided to the Unit administrators prior to the Unit Final, and will be available from the District website. Pairs may turn in its form and registration fee to the Unit Administrator at the conclusion of the Unit Final in which they play; pairs that do not register at the time of the Unit Final must register with the District Coordinator, directly.

This year's entry fee is $24.00 per player ($48.00 per pair).

Registered pairs who do not appear to play in the event will forfeit their registration fees. Registered pairs may cancel their entries through October 25, 2005 and receive a full refund of registration fees. Registered pairs who cancel after October 25, 2005 and before November 3, 2005 will receive a refund of the pair's registration fee less a $5.00 administrative fee per player.

Please call or E-mail the District Coordinator, Barry Lippitt, with any questions, at (248) 357-0002 or d12coordinator@earthlink.net. Information may also be available on the District website at <http://www.d12bridge.org>.
